BEAVERTON POLICE RESPOND TO ATTEMPTED HOME INVASION ROBBERY AND ATTEMPTED MURDER

The Beaverton Police Department responded to 17570 NW Cornell on July 11th at 3:00 pm on a report of an attempted home invasion and attempted murder.

The intended victim was not home when the offense occurred, however the victim's roommate was and upon answering a knock at the door, she was greeted by a Hispanic male and female. The suspects were told the intended victim was not home and they left, only to return three minutes later.

Upon answering the door a second time, the male suspect forced his way into the apartment, followed by the female suspect. The roommate's dog began to bark and growl at both suspects, at which point the male suspect fired one round from a handgun at the animal (not injured).

The roommate immediately pushed past the female suspect and ran out of the apartment and hid in a nearby laundry room until the police department arrived. As the roommate was running from the apartment, the male suspect fired one round at her, however she was not hit. It is unknown how the suspects left the scene.

Male suspect: Hispanic male, mid to late twenties, 180 lbs, shaved head
Female suspect: Hispanic female, mid to late twenties.

Follow-up investigation will include the completion of composite drawings.

Anyone with information is urged to call Det. Mark Kirlin at 503-526-2286.
